In the original words and artwork of Mary Anne Radmacher: Live boldly, laugh loudly, love truly, and play as often as you can.

Monthly Quotes:

January: Big ideas only look that way because a bunch of small ideas like to hang out together.

February: Let's declare the day we met a holiday!

March: Clarity stands up when certainty sits down.

April: Fitting together is more important than fitting in.

May: A flower from the hand of a friend will always bloom.

June: The dawn whispers every day, ""Wake up. It's time to dance."" Listen.

July: Start. Now. You'll get to the end soon enough.

August: It might look like an edge - looking back you'll understand it was just a bump in the road.

September: The light is so much brighter when we choose to shine together.

October: The most profound instruction for the ways of life are found written in our own heart.

November: May gratitude be the light in your world and may the flame show you many rewarding paths.

December: Just look at that. You've been brilliant yet again.
