Disclaimer: Realistic fiction dealing with difficult topics that may not be suitable for readers under the age of 15. Brianca Euley is a popular girl who feels unloved by her family and runs away right before her eighteenth birthday. She doesn't quite know what it is that is missing from her life but she is desperately trying to find it. She is seeking love in all the wrong places, in the clubs and with various men. But no matter where she looks they all seem to fail her in the end. Will she ever learn that what is missing from her life is God? Will she discover the wonderful love that only God can provide or will she continue down this path of destruction?
