Spaced Repetition is the Mother of All Skill and there is no better way to practice the art of memorizing names than to have live examples of someone's face to link a name with.

In How to Win and Influence People, Dale Carnegie says, "Remember that a person's name is to that person the sweetest and most important sound in any language."

The first step in improving your communication skills and people skills, is to be able to build a rapport with the people that you want to talk to. What better way to build rapport than to be able to remember that person's name and call them out by it a month a later.

Do you think that they will be more open to communicating with you if they knew that you cared enough about them to take the time and remember their name?

In Chapter 12, you will also learn how to use the Art of Visualization to connect deeper with the people that you interact with by remembering the information that you talked about. This will build more trust and strengthen your relationships with others if they know that you actually care about what they have to say by remembering facts from the conversations that you have with them.

As you will learn in this book, all of the top memory athletes will tell you that The Key to MEMORIZATION is VISUALIZATION! Your brain learns best when it can SEE the information that it wants to memorize. When it comes to names, you need to have a picture association for every name if you want to memorize an individual's name very quickly. I will give you my list of names that I have already converted into pictures as a FREE BONUS GIFT!
