Trinidad and Tobago Visioning a Nation of Great Hope Derek Abdul Salick

Trinidad and Tobago Visioning a Nation of great Hope, Chapter one focuses on the voiceless people, their struggles and continuous denial of their equal space and contribution to Trinidad. Chapter two focuses on strategies of underdevelopment, race and political ideologies implemented by those in power to maintain a stagnant society. Also the crime wave that's crippling the Caribbean region. Finally a Vision that will allow Trinidad and Tobago to be a model of human development for the Developing World.
