MUGGERS BEAT MY MOM AGAIN; The day this book was printed. We hospitalized her, but she soon was wandering the streets again. When finally in rehab, she accosted other patients, so they put her in restraints in a psych ward. Alcohol had reduced my mother to a demented state -- she didn't know me anymore.

One day I put my hand on her heart and prayed, "Jesus, give my mom a happy heart." She replied, "Jesus, now I'm ready, take all of me." Two weeks later her guardian called asking, "Nancy, what happened to your mother? She laughs all the time."

Since her miracle, mom regained strength, coordination, and her memory. Her joyful heart made her the staff's favorite patient -- and I finally had a loving mom.

That miracle begins this edition of BEYOND SURVIVAL.

Its all about Faith, Hope, and Love...and miracles!!!

What is Denial?

What starts off as a way of coping with a difficult situation can turn ugly if left unchecked. When something terrible happens, like the loss of a loved one, our first reaction is denying that it ever happened. But we move past that.

There are other forms of denial that many of us do not move beyond. Saying you don't have a problem drinking or smoking -- "I can quit any time." Some people go years denying the same thing over and over again. This book is for you. You may not even realize you are in denial about something. That's the tricky part -- how do you see something that you refuse to believe even exists? Just keep an open mind and let the story unfold. And if you don't find what you're looking for in these pages, be patient, and listen to your own story.

"A joyful heart is the health of the body, but a depressed spirit dries up the bones. Proverbs 17:22" NABRE
