Now that her roommate has moved out and she is staring down the barrel at an endless life of working at low paying job which won't cover her rent, Cassidy can't wait to escape her dead-end life. With only enough money for train fare, she climbs aboard, hoping that the interview to work as a ranch hand will give her a future....

Soon she meets a fragile young woman named Gracie and learns that she is escaping a past that even Cassidy cannot imagine. She listens as Gracie tells her about the arranged husband she is meeting in Oklahoma and finds herself wishing she was in Gracie's place.

Tragedy strikes, derailing her plan and causes her to miss her interview. Out of desperation, Cassidy finds herself on the train heading instead to a different ranch where she plans to take Gracie's place and hopes that she will find a new life.

There she meets two gorgeous men who have even more secrets than she does. When their secrets are revealed, can they get past the shocking truth and find happiness?
