Ellie Warner always knew her brother would do big things. She just thought those things would be in music, not medicine. But when Ellie's brother leaves to attend college, Ellie is left behind for the summer with the band and the new boy taking her brother's spot. At first, Ellie is hard pressed to like Gavin. Over time, however, the two fall for each other. Things are not easy for Ellie as she struggles with her broken family and the damage inflicted by her father. Through a series of events, a close look at the relationships with the people around her, and one nerve-wracking surprise, Ellie finds that sometimes the 'crooked' place is the very best place to be.
