The Less Than Epic Adventures of TJ and Amal E. K. Weaver

In the span of a single day, Amal Chakravarthy calls off his arranged marriage, comes out to his conservative parents, promptly gets disowned, goes on a bender . . . and wakes up the next morning to find TJ—a lanky, dreadlocked vagrant-frying eggs and singing Paul Simon in his kitchen. TJ claims that the two have made a drunken pact to drive all the way from Berkeley to Providence. As it happens, Amal promised his sister he'd be there for her graduation from Brown University. And TJ, well . . . TJ has his own reasons. The Less Than Epic Adventures of TJ and Amal omnibus collects the full 2009-2014 run of E.K. Weaver's critically acclaimed road trip romance, with brand new full-color inserts. This is Iron Circus Comics' first third-party book, and we couldn't be prouder to publish the definitive edition of one of our favorite webcomics of all time. Make no mistake, this is a huge book, clocking in at well over 500 pages. The complete and perfect story, from beginning to end, with lush scenery spreads in glorious full color!
