'To Thine be the Glory'is a factual account of my life to date and how I found the Lord. My main objective is for the book to reach as many people as possible to achieve two aspects: The first being to encourage more people to read the bible and attend a church selected through developing a close relationship with the Lord. I have read in Christian literature how bible reading is going to become obsolete in the future which horrifies me. The second is to explain to them why it is important to develop and establish their faith in the Lord by highlighting the errors and sins I have committed in my life and the consequences of doing so. You will note 'To Thine Be The Glory' can be read in an hour which I feel for busy people and tired people this is a unique benefit. It is written in a humorous tone to relax the reader and open them up to receive the main message of the book.
