Comments From Other Readers

“When one thinks of the fighting in World War II, the Pacific and Asian areas are sometimes overlooked because of the focus on the action in Europe. However, it is important to note that the struggle over the Pacific Ocean and Japanese front are just as crucial as other parts of the war. This book is a good reminder of the details of this side of the conflict.” – Wes L. (Highspire, USA)

“America’s involvement in the Second World War stretched far beyond the European front and D-Day. The author follows the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor and makes the connection to this event and the fighting in the Pacific Theater by land, air, and sea. Very informative read.” – Weston D. (London, UK)
