First Century Ministry in the Twenty First Century John K. Mathew

Pastoral ministry in a fast changing globalized world is a major concern for many. It is true that ministry in the 21st century requires well educated ministers, but godly character and dependence on an all-sufficient God cannot be over looked. As a third generation preacher with extensive experience as a pastor and educator, Dr. John K. Mathew is well qualified to write a book like this. Dr. Mathew's concern for ministerial education is meritorious and has significance, especially, in the Indian social and cultural context. Each chapter in this book is thought-provoking, encouraging and leads the reader to a fresh approach to ministry. The book is a treasure for those seeking biblically sound teaching on pastoral ministry and leadership in the 21st century.
