Life on the Bright Side: An Autobiography

This is the autobiography of Mary Howell, who spent her life turning apparent defeat into victory. Her determination and strong faith in God have been an inspiration to all who know her. Mary was born with cerebral palsy. Doctors believed that she would never walk or talk. Despite the doctors' advice that she should be institutionalized, Mary's parents prayed for God's guidance in giving her the love, understanding, and encouragement that she needed to face the future. Not only did Mary learn to walk and talk, she attended public schools and even went on to attend a junior college. In addition, she was won numerous awards for many achievements, and it is her family's prayer that the pages of this book will inspire others to live "Life on the Bright Side."
