What People Are Saying

I love the simplicity of falling in love while listening to the other person breathe. No words needed. So sweet and realistic.

Some of these scenes were so emotional I felt like I needed to turn my head and give them some space! I love that I could feel it so much!

Winter Romance

With a passion for hockey, but disdain for media attention, Sawyer Reed tries to rebuild his life after fame by reconnecting with his estranged brother in NYC. While there, he meets an odd girl who won't take no for an answer.

Nora Maddison is doing her best to maintain some level of normalcy while rising to fame quicker than she anticipated. As she disguises herself and meanders about the city, she finds a mysterious man who refuses to give her the time of day.

Eventually, the two find solace in their late night conversations, but when their true identities are revealed they must decide if their hidden romance is worth more than their dreams.
