In the years that followed the three plagues of Donbridge, wealth, prosperity and peace have found their way to the town. A great journey would envelop the minds of the townsfolk, leaving them to hire outsiders to take care of their farms and businesses. But all are not pleased with the decisions of the town as many remember its history all too well. Knowing in their hearts that disaster is looming, a small group of Donbridgians stay behind. It's not long after that these lingerers discover a foe is amongst them and has been shaping the history of the town for decades. Outnumbered and desperate for a plan to take their fair town back, the group looks to a young man to rise to the occasion and become their hero.
