Two Sides To Pain J. Mallard

Fighting to climb his way out of the pitfalls of Atlanta's drug game, a charismatic young hustler named Quan finds himself ducking bullets from an enemy that is far too close to him. Racing against time, he finds love in the most unpredictable place. When two lives from different worlds combine, casualties are unavoidable. This tale of love, jealousy, and betrayal hits so close to home that it's hard not to relate. In life, even love has a price...
