Macy has all but run her bakery into the ground. Crippled by loss and a heavy heart, she has accepted the defeat of her dreams.

Then, one summer evening, Sebastian walks into her bakery and flips her world upside down.

A sexy but entitled billionaire, Sebastian is willing to make all of Macy's dreams come true...with a catch.

Sebastian needs a bride, and he needs one now.

However, marrying for money and convenience has its price, and Macy is unsure how to navigate her newfound relationship with her cold but wealthy husband.

Between a vile mother-in-law, a lecherous father-in-law, and the other woman eyeing Sebastian, Macy is in over her head and slowly turns to another man in the hopes of finding peace of heart.

Macy must choose between her sexy but aloof billionaire husband and the handsome blond begging to show her the love and passion that Macy so desperately yearns for.

That choice, however, is complicated by the premature birth of an unhealthy child.

With her infant's livelihood on the line, Macy can accept only the purest of affection and love – and the man that she does not choose turns to bitter vengeance.

In a marriage founded only on cold hard cash, does love even stand a chance?
