RHS Chelsea Flower Show: The First 100 years, 1913-2013 Brent Elliott

Chelsea Flower Show is an annual, world famous and well-loved horticultural and social event. In May 2013 Chelsea celebrated its hundredth birthday. This book is the essential centenary souvenir, and an enduring look at what makes Chelsea special. A learned but accessible text will explore how the show has evolved, how it has formed part of the social calendar and how it has reflected and shaped tastes in garden design and planting over the years. Outstanding personalities will be highlighted as well as outstanding gardens. Sprinkled through the book are short pieces by significant nurserymen and nurserywomen, designers, organisers, visitors and patrons that describe what Chelsea means to them. The book will be arranged chronologically, with chapters on the early shows, shows between the wars, and decade by decade history of the show through to the present day. Illustrations are largely drawn from the extensive Royal Horticultural Society archive and include photographs in colour and black and white, plans, posters and other ephemera.
