Under False Pretenses James R. Riffel

The mob isn't what it used to be. When Jason Campala, the gone-straight progeny of a Philly organized crime group's leadership, confirms that millions of dollars have been ripped off, the mobsters launch a frantic search for the suspect. They know if they don't find the thief, and word hits the streets, they're dead meat, and it doesn't help that the old boss is on his last legs and cartel-types are hanging around like vultures.

This young dame Deirdre Hansen might know something that can help. She looks like a college kid house-sitting in a swanky part of town, but everything the young lady does tells the mobsters she's in on it. But the usual approach ain't gonna work. They have to send a smooth operator in there to charm the information out of her—or, well, do what he has to do.
