When Belle gets her first tutoring job, she can't wait to start. It's her dream job and it means she will get a chance to see how the upper class live. Belle can't believe her luck, when she realizes that not only does she get to move to the big city, but that the child she is teaching is a sweet and caring little girl.

Belle and her new boss get on great, but both of them know where the professional boundaries are, that is, until there is an accident and Belle comes to the rescue. Her boss, Sam, a gorgeous, blue blooded cowboy, decides to take her out to say thank you, but as those professional lines are crossed they both find themselves making a choice, which they will never be able to undo.

Loving The Tutor is a standalone story. This is a BWWM Romance novella that is sure to surprise you with the many twists and turns**
