The Friday prayer is one of the outstanding symbols of Islam that distinguishes it from other religions. Allah (SWT) has blessed the Muslims by granting them this day as a day of congregational worship. One of the most important aspects of the worship performed on Friday is the deliverance of the Friday sermon (Khutbah). The e-book that is before you is being presented as a tool to help in carrying out this most important act of worship.

This e-book is a must for every Imam and all those who expect to deliver Friday sermons especially in the English language. The sermons included in this e-book are gathered from the sermons of Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) himself, his Companions and many prominent scholars throughout the history of Islam. The sermons are both educational and heart moving, therefore fulfilling the goal of the Friday sermon. Every Muslim who attends the Friday congregational prayer desires to have his faith increased and nurture with inspirational and encouraging exhortations, and at the same time be sure that the information, which he is receiving is religiously correct. Hence, we present this collection of sermons in hopes that it will help the reader in delivering standard religious speeches, thereby fulfilling the obligation of the Friday sermon in the best manner. All topics elaborated in the light of Quran and Sunnah with detail. The book has six major chapters:

1. Some sermons of the Prophet (PBUH) and his Companions. (Including sermons of the Prophet (PBUH) and his rightly guided Caliphs)
2. The Aqeedah (Islamic Creed) – including pillars of Islam and Iman.
3. The Acts of Worship – Including prayer, Ramadan and Hajj, etc.
4. Behavior and good Manners – It consists of Modesty, Mercy, Neighbor's rights, honoring the ties of Kinship, etc.
5. Ar-Riqaq (Talks that soften the heart) – Including repentance, patience, the virtue of remembering Allah (SWT), etc.
6. Battles and virtues of the Prophet (PBUH) – The virtue of Jihad in the path of Allah (SWT), the battle of Badr, the qualities of the Messenger of Allah (PBUH), etc.
