The Geneva Conventions of 1949: The Case of Israel Denise DeGarmo, Jad Isaac, Johny Elia Abu Aita
The purpose of this book is to provide a comprehensive analysis of the grave breaches of the Fourth Geneva Convention by the State of Israel since the Oslo Accords. It is only through such analysis that one can understand Israel's true intentions toward Palestinian territory: occupation as a tool to achieve full annexation of Palestinian territories to create a homeland for Jews alone at any price, even the refusal to be guided by international law.
