Habu's Fetish Galore series explores the concept of gay male sexual fetishes. Included in the series are stories indexed to 40 fetishes that meet the broadest definition of fetish: obsession with the unusual in sexual gratification.

A survey of readers and practitioners has revealed almost as many separate understandings of what a fetish is as there were respondents, with some opining that "anything goes" and anything beyond the missionary can be included. Others believe that only a limited number of practices can be considered unusual in this regard. A frequent mention of the latter was the requirement that a nonsexual object come into play in the process (which accords with one of the definitions in the Urban Dictionary).

When a list of what people thought was a gay male fetish started to build, however, there were far more than the 40 played with in this series.

When habu got to bacon though, he decided to close the list and to deal with only the most frequently cited examples. However, he also decided to go with the broader definition rather than a narrow one, because, at the end of the day, a fetish is very personal. It's what arouses and becomes obsessive and services the gratification needs of the individual.
