Living on Gummy Worms is a Christian fiction novel, exploring our tendency to seek out the "gummy worms" of this world - various material things - in attempt to fill ourselves up, finding that our world does not have the power to satisfy. Only God does. This novel takes you on a journey of four fictional characters - Gretchen, Morgan, Sydney, and Shane. Although each individual is different and has different struggles, all grapple with the tendency to seek out our world's gummy worms, and all fall prey to the insecurities and destruction that result. As the characters evolve, will they continue to follow that path of destruction, or will they find that the only true source of satisfaction lies with God alone?
