Twelve colorful scenes make for a fun year, regardless of your job.

No matter how small your plot at the cube farm, you still can be glad you're not Dilbert. Not only does he work in a tiny box, he also deals with the boss's oversize ego, Wally's underdeveloped work ethic, Alice's impulsive personality, and Asok's powers of kinesis. If that's not enough to make you feel better about your job, the Dilbert 2014 Wall Calendar is filled with cartoons that will make you grateful enough to work for free. Okay, maybe not, but they'll make you feel lucky that at least you don't have Topper, Ted, or the woman who laughs too much on the other side of your cubicle wall.

Even if you're a lowly intern, you'll feel like the boss (but not the pointy-haired kind) when this calendar's displayed in your workspace. It features a large redrawn and colorized panel from a Dilbert cartoon and two supporting strips on every spread.
