Summaries of "Song of Hiawatha" and "Skeleton In Armor" Daniel Zimmermann

This e-book presents a fairly detailed summary of the two works mentioned in the title. It also offers reminiscences of the Hiawatha pageant of Pipestone, Minnesota, which the author attended on three different occasions. "The Song of Hiawatha" is one of the best literary works that America has produced. It presents a genuine Native American tale in poetry characterized by incomparable beauty. "The Skeleton In Armor" is one of Longfellow's excellent poems. These summaries may inspire you to read these works, if you have not read them as of yet. If you have read them already, these summaries will refresh your memory.
