The Great Divide in the Church of Christ: A Riveting Study of Issues, Perspectives and a Church Split

Dennis Ensor

This case study is a riveting and uncensored look into the words and actions of the members of a typical Bible Belt "Church of Christ" as they wrestle, sometimes intensely, with the biblical concepts of truth, sound doctrine, false teachers, faith, works, grace, unity, worship, and more. It deals with head scratching, mind boggling choices and actions of church leaders and the resulting church split. It is thought provoking and introspective and will drive the reader back to the word. This is a must read for every church leader and serious student of the Bible in the church today! It can also be used as a great discussion starter for Bible Study and discussion groups.
