Now, 3000 years later, it seems most likely that King David of Goliath fame was the world's first described person with Parkinson's disease. History hid the secret in full view; the dots have been connected and recorded here by a surgeon who was retired prematurely due to Parkinson's. The Seven Steps' Climb from Despair to Hope by Club Parkee were found to have also been documented three millennia previously. Finally for biblical historians, Parkinson's likely played a major role in the background for Ecclesiastes and Song of Solomon.
