Knight's SEAL by Donna Michaels—Dangerous Curves/Hot SEALs Crossover Novella

Navy SEAL Sam 'Excel' Gentry barely has time to consider his buddy's job offer to join Guardian Angel Protection Service when a commander from their past, with his own D.C. based agency, asks for help. Owing his life to former Commander Jameson Knight, Sam is eager to help retrieve a mutual friend from a dangerous cartel, until he learns the operative assisting him is Knight's oldest daughter, Lisa—Sam's former lover.

Elisabeth Knight has waited over eight months to get into the field, and just her luck, her first mission hits close to home in more ways than one. Not only does it involve rescuing her friend, a former NIO like herself, but her father assigns one of his former SEALs to assist—the one she'd given her body and heart to five years ago. Sam had walked away when he'd realized who her father was, and she let him, not wanting to see the sexy man shot, or worse, assigned to Antarctica...permanently. Completing their current mission isn't the issue, the danger lies in their inability to fight their resurrected attraction and keeping that failure from her father.
