MEN OF CONCORD : And Some Others As Portrayed In The Journal Of Henry David Thoreau : Edited By Francis H. Allen Henry D. Thoreau

10 lovely full-page color plates by N. C. Wyeth, all present, in excellent condition, and all retaining their 'title' pages. The book is bound in green cloth with white printing on a dark blue field on the front and spine and has illustrated end papers and pastedowns, and the dustjacket is beige paper with black printing and an N. C. Wyeth illustration on the front panel. The book is straight and clean with no previous owner handwriting in it; it has a couple of very small lighter spots to the binding cloth and a small, faint damp stain to about a half dozen page corners at the beginning of the book (affecting no plates or printing). The dustjacket is clean and crisp; the spine has sunned somewhat darker, there is some edge chipping to the lower spine end, flap fold ends, and upper back panel (the only large chip), and again, small, faint damp stains to part of edges. Handsome example of this beautifully illustrated book.
