This is a historical novel, speaking about a critical period in the sixteenth century, connecting Granada to Egypt . Dorra the carpet weaver, her grandson Maa-alzahab, her sister Sahar are the main characters which represent Granada, Ibrahem the son of the head of merchants of Cairo, is the main character which represent Egypt . Through the sequence of events Ibrahem travelled to Granada, met Dorra, her grandson, her sister, where they exchanged their tales, joy, fear, hope . As you turn the pages, you will be oriented of the struggle between exclusion, seclusion due to ideological differences from one side, and open minds from the other side, represented by the great Arabian philosophers, Sufis who were stated in the novel as Averroes, Ibn-Arabi, Ibn-Tofail . It is a story about human beings who loved life, were eager to every drop of it, yet they were oppressed . That period was critical, the author set a question, who would have the upper hand, life or oppression ? the answer wasn't easy .
